- Beware of Imitations -

This is the only club dedicated to the dog-slave and their Owner/Trainers.

There is something very special about SM, the devotion of a slave to his Master, the difference between a slave waiting on the end of a leash behind a top, not knowing how to stand, how to act versa the slave behind his Master, where everything appears second nature as if he had a canine soul, such a slave leave your drooling

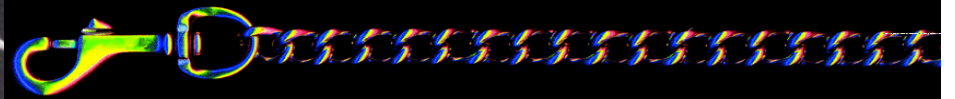

If you want to explore the animal within, or are seeking a Master/Owner

Welcome to the DogHouse - Home of the other Kennel

As one member puts it:

My earliest fantasies were all about being someone's pup - dog collar, leash, dog bowl, petting, crouching at my Master's feet - the whole bit.

As I've grown up, I've managed on a few occasions to find someone who was interested in being my Master, but they were usually not really into it, it was more from curiosity.
